IN REPLY REFER TO

C:R:FW:MR

MAR 16 1959

Divine Savior High School
4257 N. 100 St.
Milwaukee 16, Wisconsin

Dear Sister M. Stephen:

This certifies that your organization is a purchaser and/or seller of articles, the sale or use of which is subject to tax under Chapter 32, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and has registered with the District Director of Internal Revenue as provided by temporary regulations in Treasury Decision 6344 relating to the Excise Tax Technical Changes Act of 1958.

Tax-free sales may not be made unless both the seller and purchaser are registered.

The purchaser shall note on the purchase order or other document furnished to the seller by the purchaser the exempt purpose for which the article or articles are being purchased, date of registration, and the district director with whom registered.

It is understood that this registration is for use only by a non-profit educational organization in the purchase for its exclusive use of articles subject to the manufacturers excise tax; or by an organization exempt from income tax described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code in the purchase of any such article for the exclusive use of its school which qualifies it as a non-profit educational organization.

Very truly yours,

E. J. Nelson

United States Catholic Conference
Office of General Counsel
3211 - 4th Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20017-1194

Dear Ms. Holloran:

In a ruling dated March 25, 1946, we held that the agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in the Official Catholic Directory for 1946, are entitled to exemption from federal income tax under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. This ruling has been updated annually to cover the activities added to or deleted from the Directory.

The Official Catholic Directory for 1989 shows the names or addresses of all agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories and possessions in existence at the time of Director was published. It is understood that each of these is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation, and that none are private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code.

Based on all information submitted, we conclude that the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in the Official Catholic Directory for 1989 are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to the agencies, instrumentalities and institutions referred to above, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

United States Catholic Conference

Beginning January 1, 1984, unless specifically excepted, you and your subordinates must pay tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Social Security taxes) for each employee who is paid $100 or more in a calendar year. You and your subordinates are not liable for tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Next year, within 90 days before the close of your annual accounting period, or by May 31, the date established by our letter of April 28, 1975, which gave an extension of time to file the information, please send one copy of the official Catholic Directory of 1990 for each Internal Revenue District in which one or more of your subordinates are located, with four additional copies to this office.

The conditions concerning the retention of your group exemption as set forth in our previous determination letter of April 17, 1983 remain in full force and effect.

Sincerely yours,

Phil Brand
