To whom it may concern:

Dominican High School is exempt by the Internal Revenue Service from the requirement to file a Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax (Form 990). The Internal Revenue Service does not require Form 990 to be filed by a school below college level which is operated by a religious order. Dominican High School is covered by this definition and is therefore not required to file Form 990.

Mr. Mark E. Chopko
General Counsel
United States Catholic Conference
3211 4th Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20017-1194

Dear Mr. Chopko:

In a ruling dated March 25, 1946, we held that the agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in the Official Catholic Directory for 1946, are entitled to exemption from federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. This ruling has been updated annually to cover the activities added to or deleted from the Directory.

The Official Catholic Directory for 1990 shows the names or addresses of all agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories and possessions in existence at the time the Directory was published. It is understood that each of these is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation, and that none are private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code.

Based on all information submitted, we conclude that the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in the Official Catholic Directory for 1990 are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to the agencies, instrumentalities and institutions referred to above, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Requests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

To whom it may concern:

→ Dominican High School is exempt by the Internal Revenue Service from the requirement to file a Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax (Form 990). The Internal Revenue Service does not require Form 990 to be filed by a school below college level which is operated by a religious order.
