Gentlemen:

In a letter dated March 8, 1982 you notified this office of the merger of the Lutheran Hospital of Milwaukee, Inc. and the Evangelical Deaconess Society of Wisconsin (also known as Deaconess Society of Wisconsin, Inc.). The Articles of Merger which you submitted indicates that the surviving corporation shall be known as the Good Samaritan Medical Center, Inc.

We have terminated the exemption of the entity known to our office as Evangelical Deaconess Society of Wisconsin, and changed the name of the Lutheran Hospital of Milwaukee, Inc. to Good Samaritan Medical Center, Inc., inasmuch as you indicate they are the surviving corporation. Your organization should continue using Employer Identification #39-0806155.

Thank you for submitting the information. We have made it a part of your file. The changes do not adversely affect your exempt status and the exemption letter issued to you continues in effect.

Sincerely yours,

C. Switzer

Sirs:

It is the opinion of this office, based upon the evidence presented, that you are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

Accordingly, you will not be required to file returns of income unless you change the character of your organization, the purposes for which you were organized, or your method of operation. Any such changes should be reported immediately to the collector of internal revenue for your district in order that their effect upon your exempt status may be determined.

The exemption evidenced by this letter relates specifically to Federal income tax but since any organization which is exempt from such tax under the provisions of Section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code also is entitled to exemption from the capital stock tax pursuant to the express provisions of Section 1201(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, you will not be required to file capital stock tax returns for future years so long as the exemption from income tax is effective.

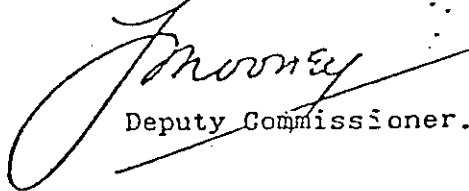

Contributions made to you are deductible by the donors in arriving at their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by Section 23(o) and (q) of the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

The collector of internal revenue for your district is being advised of this action.

Your status with respect to Federal employment taxes will be dealt with in a separate communication.

By direction of the Commissioner.

Respectfully,

Deputy Commissioner.
