Caveat Applies:

No

Dear Applicant

This modifies our letter of the above date in which we stated that you would be treated as an organization which is not a private foundation until the expiration of your advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, we have determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code because you are an organization of the type described in section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). Your exempt status under Code section 501(c)(3) is still in effect.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination until the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(1) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of such status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

If the heading of this letter indicates that a caveat applies, the caveat below or on the enclosure is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your private foundation status, please keep it in your permanent records.

Gentlemen:

Purpose: Educational

Accounting Period Ending: June 30

Based on information supplied and assuming your operations will be as stated in your exemption application, we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any change in your purposes, character or method of operation must be reported to us so we may consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. You must also report any change in your name and address.

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code because you are an organization described in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii).

You are required to file the annual return, Form 990, on or before the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. Failure to file the Form 990 by this date may subject you to a penalty of $10 for each day during which such failure continues, up to a maximum of $5,000.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns (Forms 1041, 1065 or 1120) so long as you retain your exempt status unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income imposed by Section 511 of the Code, in which case you are required to file a Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the Code.
