We have your letter of June 5, 1956, in which you have requested a statement from this office to the effect that Hastings College qualifies as exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Please be advised that, according to the records of this office, a ruling letter was issued to you by our National Office under date of August 6, 1952, which concluded that the college was exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939. The latter section covers the same type of organizations as is now covered by Section 501(c)(3) of the present Internal Revenue Code.

Very truly yours,
