To Whom It May Concern:

I am forwarding to you a copy of the Articles of Amendment which explains the name change of our organization.

The next name of the organization is:

Interfaith Conference of Greater Milwaukee

The former name of the organization is:

Greater Milwaukee Conference on Religion and Urban Affairs

It is my understanding that you need a copy of the Articles of Amendment so that we can maintain our tax exemption. Please notify us if you need further information or details concerning our name change.

Sincerely,

Patrick M. Flood

Gentlemen:

Purpose: Religious - Charitable

Accounting Period Ending: December 31

Based on information supplied, we have concluded that your organization is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This determination assumes the organization's operations will be as stated in the exemption application. Any changes in operation from those described, or in your character or purposes, must be reported to the District Director, at the above address, for consideration of their effect upon your status. You must also report any changes in your name or address.

Pending issuance of regulations under Section 509 of the Code, we are unable to make a determination as to whether you are a private foundation as defined in that section. Upon issuance of the regulations we will evaluate your application and make a determination as to whether you are a private foundation.

You are required to file the annual return, Form 990, on or before the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. Failure to file the Form 990 by this date may subject you to a penalty of $10 for each day during which such failure continues, up to a maximum of $5,000.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns (Forms 1041, 1065 or 1120) so long as you retain your exempt status, unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income imposed by Section 511 of the Code, in which case you are required to file a Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities is unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the Code.

Contributions made to you are deductible by donors as provided in Section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers and gifts to or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under the provisions of Sections 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.

You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in such act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Inquiries about the waiver of exemption certificate for social security taxes should be addressed to this office. Any questions concerning excise, employment or other Federal taxes may be directed to the nearest Internal Revenue Service office in your District.

This is a determination letter.

Very truly yours,

George O. Lethert
