Dear Sister:

We are pleased to tell you that as a result of our examination for the above period, we will continue to recognize your organization as tax exempt.

As was discussed at the closing conference, you must publish the notice of La Farge's nondiscriminatory policy annually and maintain sufficient records to determine the racial composition of the student body, faculty, and administrative staff.

Revenue Procedure 75-50 states that a school must make its racially nondiscriminatory policy known to all segments of the general community served by the school and also details the type of records that a private school must maintain for a minimum of three years.

When the notice regarding your schools nondiscriminatory policy is published, please mail a copy of the notice to our office.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

C. D. Switzer

Gentlemen:

Based on the information you recently submitted, we have classified you as an organization that is not a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Your classification is based on the assumption that your operations will be as stated in your notification. Any changes in your purposes, character, or method of operation must be reported to your District Director so he may consider the effect on your status.

Sincerely yours,

Chief, Rulings Section

Form 990-A Required: ☒ Yes ☐ No
Accounting Period Ending: June 30

Gentlemen:

On the basis of your stated purposes and the understanding that your operations will continue as evidenced to date or will conform to those proposed in your ruling application, we have concluded that you are exempt from Federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any changes in operation from those described, or in your character or purposes, must be reported immediately to your District Director for consideration of their effect upon your exempt status. You must also report any change in your name or address.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns so long as you retain an exempt status, unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income imposed by section 511 of the Code, in which event you are required to file Form 990-T. Our determination as to your liability for filing the annual information return, Form 990-A, is set forth above. That return, if required, must be filed on or before the 15th day of the fifth month after the close of your annual accounting period indicated above.

Contributions made to you are deductible by donors as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers or gifts to or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under the provisions of section 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.

You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in such act. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Inquiries about the waiver of exemption certificate for social security taxes should be addressed to this office, as should any questions concerning excise, employment or other Federal taxes.

This is a determination letter.

Very truly yours,

W. S. Stumpf
