Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Jan. 11, 2016, request for information about your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were issued a determination letter in November 1965, and that you are currently exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Based on the information supplied, we recognized the subordinates named on the list you submitted as exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Doris P. Kenwright

Re: Requests for information regarding your council's federal tax-exempt status

Dear Ed:

This letter clarifies the tax-exempt status of your council. The Boy Scouts of America, National Council, is recognized as a public charity and tax exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3), as well as IRC Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). We are not a private foundation as described in IRC Section 509(a). A copy of our current tax-exempt determination letter is attached.

For tax purposes, your council is a bona fide subordinate organization of the Boy Scouts of America, in good standing, and covered under the Boy Scouts of America's group exemption ruling, IRS Ruling No. 1761. Though the council is a separate entity and responsible for its own, independent audit, our exemption ruling extends the same recognition of tax-exempt status to this council as to the Boy Scouts of America National Council.

Each year, the Boy Scouts of America National Office submits to the IRS in electronic format a list of approved subordinate organizations which includes all local councils and their endowment trusts. Your council's information is on the attached list of subordinates.

On behalf of the many young men and women you serve in your council area, thank you again for all you do for Scouting. Questions, if any, can be directed to Russ McNamer, Associate General Counsel – Tax and Corporate, National Office, Legal Department, (972) 580-2226 (O), (214) 801-6974 (C) or Russ.McNamer@scouting.org.

Very truly yours,

Michael Surbaugh

RE: COUNCIL TAX-EXEMPT STATUS

Attached is a letter dated January 6, 2011, from the Internal Revenue Service. It reaffirms the status of the Boy Scouts of America as a public charity that is tax-exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3). It extends this tax-exempt status to all local councils and their approved council trust funds, and allows us to include them under our group exemption as subordinate organizations of the BSA National Council.

A copy of this IRS letter – along with the letter confirming your council's subordinate status and the page for your council from the IRS group exemption filing – should be sufficient for taxing entities, United Ways, corporations, and foundations that require proof of your council's tax-exempt status.

As in the past, the attached letter is valid until further notice. The IRS does NOT routinely issue annual tax determination letters to charities. They are only issued upon request, or if the tax status of an organization has changed within the year. If you have any questions or need anything else, please call us at 972-580-2226.

Thank you very much.
