Gentlemen:

In a letter from this office dated December 31, 1958, the opinion was expressed that you are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it is shown that you are organized and operated exclusively for scientific and educational purposes.

A review of our file, and particularly the purposes stated in your articles of incorporation, indicate that from the date of incorporation, you have been organized and operated exclusively for only educational purposes.

Except to the extent of the above modification, our letter to you dated December 31, 1958 remains in full force and effect.

Very truly yours,

Attention: John S. Pillsbury, Jr.
Secretary

Gentlemen:

An examination of your application for exemption from Federal income tax, and of the information submitted in support thereof, discloses that you are a nonprofit corporation organized on March 24, 1955, under the laws of the State of Minnesota.

The specific purposes for which you were formed are to construct and operate a nonprofit, noncommercial, educational television station, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, to serve the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, area.

It is evident that your activities to date have consisted of setting up your organization and formulating plans to carry out the purposes for which you were organized. It is also evident that your funds will be derived primarily through donations from various individuals and organizations.

In view of the foregoing, we have concluded that you will be entitled to exemption from Federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (which corresponds to section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939), provided your activities are carried on strictly in furtherance of the purposes indicated and in accordance with the representations made in your application for exemption. Under the same conditions, contributions made to you will be deductible by the donors in computing their taxable income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 170 of the Code of 1954.

The conclusion set forth herein is subject to review after your proposed program has been further developed and after you have been in active operation, in furtherance of the purposes for which you were formed, for a period of approximately twelve months. There should be submitted at that time an exemption application (Form 1023), together with detailed information relative to your activities and method of operation, for the purpose of a further ruling with respect to your status for Federal income tax purposes.
