This modifies our letter of the above date in which we stated that you would be treated as an organization which is not a private foundation until the expiration of your advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, we have determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, because you are an organization of the type described in section 509(a)(3). Your exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the code is still in effect.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination until the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, a grantor or a contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 509(a)(3) status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(a)(3) organization.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your private foundation status, please keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown above.

Sincerely yours,

District Director

Dear Sir/Madam:

Wisconsin Foundation for Vocational, Technical and Adult Education, Inc. received funding in 1993 from the Bradley Foundation to support the Milwaukee Enterprise Center. We are required by the Internal Revenue Service to keep a copy of your IRS determination letter which states your tax status on file in our office. A recent audit of our records revealed this information lacking for your organization.

In compliance with IRS regulations, please forward to my attention a copy of your most recent letter from the IRS indicating your organization's 501(C)(3) tax exempt status. This letter should also indicate whether you are a public or private foundation according to section 509(A) of the Internal Revenue Code. If you do not have a copy of your determination letter which details your 509(A) (1), (2), or (3) status, please write or call your local IRS office requesting an updated letter which includes this information. If your organization is covered by a Group Ruling, please send a copy of your parent organization's tax determination letter and documentation that you are part of that group.

Thank you for helping us to comply with these regulations. If you have questions concerning this request, please feel free to phone me at (414) 291-9915.

Sincerely,

Patricia Woehrer
Program Coordinator
